Foreword

To its students, Saint Mary's Hall is more than a school. It becomes a way of life. Within the walls surrounding the campus and the halls of the schoolhouse, we begin to recognize not only the challenges and rewards of work well accomplished, but also the joys of true friendship.

The time a Saint Mary's Hall girl spends here is an enriching experience. Whether she remains a year or twelve, she will discover how quickly her mind is opened as each new door is unlocked toward a broader understanding of life.

For this reason, we, the staff of La Reata 1965, have chosen as our theme: "Doors" These doors are all familiar, but some hold a special significance for us.

Dedication

To Colonel John C. Kilborn, the Senior Class gratefully dedicates the 1965 La Reata.

Throughout his years here, Col. Kilborn has constantly and generously given of his time and efforts. He has endeavored to encourage us along the path toward maturity, and his teaching has opened the doors to the exciting world of mathematics. His ever-present warm smile and enduring friendship are memories that we shall always treasure. Col. Kilborn's patience, understanding, and interest in our well-being have endeared him to us. He has always found the time to listen to our problems, offer his counsel, and inspire us to seek higher goals.

With these words, we express our love and gratitude to a dear person who has been, and always will be, a true friend to each of us.

Col. John C. Kilborn

Farewell to the Seniors

The end of the school year is a time which always brings with it mixed emotions for us all, but it does so particularly for the seniors and for the faculty. For the seniors it marks the achievement of one of life's goals and the beginning of what is undoubtedly a larger life of greater freedom and responsibility. It also, inevitably, means the gradual dissolution of close ties of affection for people and places, and this brings to graduation a note of sadness. However, it is inevitable for the passing of time must inevitably bring changes with it.

We of the faculty who have been so closely associated with you share all these feelings and perhaps some others. In particular we want to congratulate you and to wish you well. We hope that you will return to Saint Mary's Hall often and that your affection for the School and your concern for her well-being will increase over the years, for ultimately the School is in your hands.

We also hope you share our thoughts concerning your education, both past and future. It is hard for us to agree among ourselves on its purpose even though education is central in our lives. Certainly it must involve the acquisition of many facts and skills, for the responsible adult needs to be aware of and to be able to react to an ever widening range of experiences and events. But your education must give you more—the ability to conceive of and to struggle for something better. Our country and our world will await and respond to your efforts.

With best wishes to each of you,

Henry B. Pennell

Mr. Henry B. Pennell, Headmaster

We express our gratitude to Mrs. Pennell, who is one of the most important people on the campus. She has taken a special interest in the boarding department, and has worked to bring about many innovations. We thank her for her help and supervision, but especially for her charm and enthusiasm which have daily affected our lives and the future of St. Mary's Hall.

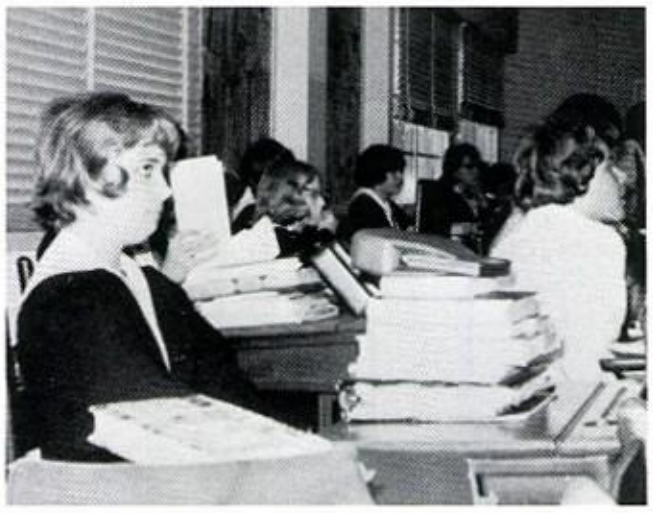
"Now these fairy tales are more my speed."

It takes a great mind to study amidst all that confusion.

Pretty cozy there on the front row.

Excitement before the Peacock dance.

Caught you red-handed.



Of course I call the hogs home every night.

Hang on tight.

Got much homework tonight, Polly?

Well, if it isn't ol' Dana Simpson again.

Grrrrrrr . . .

Nothing like being a third wheel, Shannon.

Bit of juicy gossip, Claire?

Duh . . .

A future Texas student?

Almost didn't get in that one Kitty.

Really Bibba.

What's the matter Claire? Stuck?

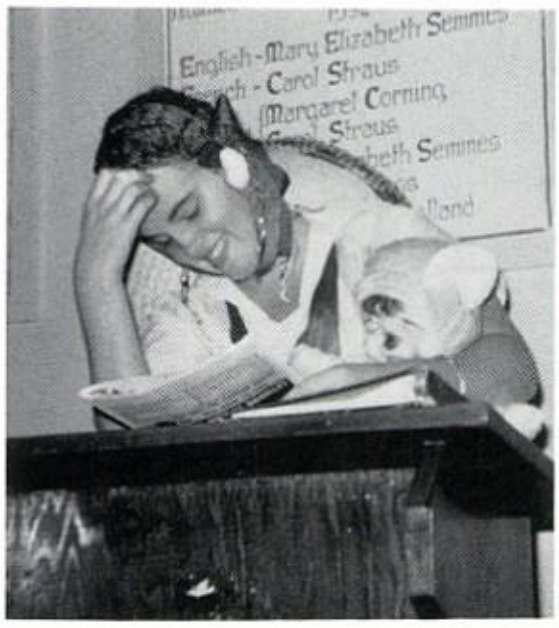
"The outdoorsy type"

You look pretty perturbed Mary Ann.

It must be pretty funny, Alice.

What's the matter Janie? Did you slip?



Don't let it embarrass you too much Patsy.

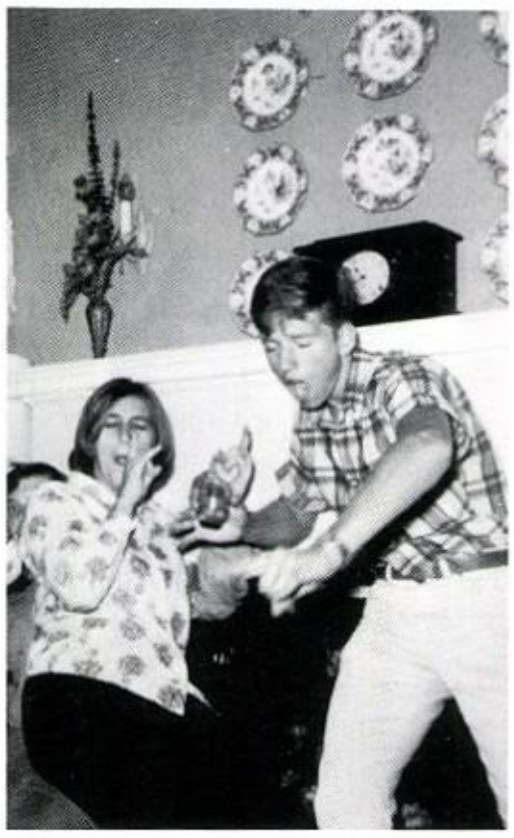
Those Juniors are always eating.

Open your eyes Ruthie, it's not a dream.

No Janie, we don't want to make mud pies with you.

Well, that didn't go over too well.

I agree Diane, he doesn't look too intelligent.



Ah-hah. Caught you in the act.

Did you get the wrong tooth-brush Jean?

Almost pulled her chair out too far, didn't you, Ethel?!

"This little piggy . . ."

Senior bathing beauties!

Didn't they teach you how to salute the flag correctly in the Lower School?

Is Dee Dee your new flame Nancy?

Poor Ginny, no more punch.

Look at how small my waist is now.

"Saint Mary's Hall girls don't do that sort of thing."

Come on back to our world, Anita.

"Thank you Dee Dee, but I'd rather do it myself."

Dead dog.

Now I grow weary of these things I see
Impatient for the day I shall be free
To break and try my still uncertain wings
Towards the future that is promised me.

No more a child I would lay down childish things,
My thirst will not be quenched by shallow springs
I need communion with great souls, to find my own
And the soul-searching wonder wisdom brings.

I look back in regard to you alone,
My dog-eared books, the teachers I have known.
My gratitude is yours, my promise shown
Now set me free to reap what you have sown.

The Student Council

The members of the Student Council are the core of Student Government at Saint Mary's Hall. Consisting of seven seniors and a representative from each of the other classes in the Upper School, it is in charge of the smooth running of every-day procedures, as well as making more important decisions concerning school life. The senior members compose the Judicial Council, and they are assisted by the Council of Proctors, consisting of the Senior Class, which acts as a disciplinarian force.

The Student Council also sponsors several projects each year; this year they collected presents at Christmas and food at Thanksgiving, as well as gathering clothing for a special family assigned to them. In addition, they coordinated the United Fund drive and raised money for it at a "slave auction."

The student body appreciates the progress the Student Council has made in the challenge of making Saint Mary's Hall a democratic organization, governed by the students themselves.

Le Cercle Français

Le Cercle Francais is composed of French III and IV students, but a few French II students may be admitted at midterm. The club meets once a month on Tuesday to listen to Soeur Sourire and improve vocabulary by working crossword puzzles. There are also special features, such as a movie on French cathedrals at Christmas time.

Thanks are due to the sponsors Mrs. Redfield and Miss Walker, for making the French Club a success this year.

El Club Margil

El Club Margil, the Spanish Club, is an organization made up of girls taking Spanish III and IV to further their interest and knowledge in the fields of Spanish culture and tradition. For initiation, the new members must wear handkerchiefs on their heads and, pinned to their middy collars, signs with a picture of a maid, La Criada, for a week; at the end of the week a meeting is held and they put on skits in Spanish for the club. February 27, 1965, the club made an exciting trip to Nuevo Laredo, sponsored by Mr. Hastings and Miss Duemke.

Societas Classica

The Latin Club, affiliated with the Junior Classical League of Texas and The National Classical League, is in its third year at St. Mary's Hall. The membership consists of all Latin students who wish to join.

This year the Latin Club gave a Christmas Chapel Service, and has had monthly meetings. Several members attended the State Convention, which was held in Waco.

The year ends with the annual Roman Banquet, at which the first year students are slaves. The club members participate most enthusiastically in this event.

The Bi-Phy-Chem Club

Bi Phy Chem, the Science Club, was founded in 1962. The various facts of science, while always of interest to students, have taken on a new importance in this modern age. By joining the club, the girls expressed their awareness of this added importance.

The official aims of the club, as stated in the Constitution, are as follows: "Its purpose shall be to stimulate an interest in the sciences." In a larger sense, the aim is to awaken in the members a lasting respect for science and its increasing influence. An undertaking of science is the key to the future.

The Art Club

The Saint Mary's Hall Art Club under the sponsorship of Miss Inez Sawyers, provides an opportunity for those interested students in the Upper and Lower School to develop and broaden their knowledge in the wild field of art.

During the school year the club attends exhibitions at the Whitte Museum and the McNay Art Institute and various other places where displays of particular interest are held. The Club is occasionally honored to hear lectures on art by prominent speakers.

In the Spring the Art Club presents the annual exhibition consisting of art work done by both the Lower and Upper Schools. This gay event is highlighted by the awarding of ribbons to the outstanding pieces of art.

As the year comes to a close, the Art Club gives a banquet at which the members express their gratitude for the time and effort Miss Sawyers had kindly contributed in assisting and supervising the Club.

Drama Club

The Drama Club is one of the most active clubs in the school. Each year it starts off with the annual Hallowe'en Party, and, immediately after finishing it starts work on the Fall Play. This year The Madwoman of Chaillot was the play performed on December 11. After mid-terms, the club begins work on monologues for the various speech contests in the San Antonio area.

In late February or early March, the club selects a school play to be performed in the spring. This play is a school project, and all students are invited to participate. At the end of the year, the club holds an informal "banquet" and goes to a play or movie afterward.

Music Department

At Saint Mary's Hall, Music education begins in the third form with weekly lessons in Music Appreciation, which continue through the fifth form. In this course, the pupils listen to records and stories of composers, study musical instruments and play them in a rhythm band.

Piano students take weekly lessons in music theory, piano technique, and have the opportunity to play for chapel services, in the Christmas and Spring Recitals, and at Graduation.

Mrs. F. M. Conlon trains her students well, and instills in them a knowledge and love of music.

Chapel Committee

The Chapel Committee, headed by Penny Chittim, has the responsibility of providing the piano accompaniment for the hymns sung each morning in Chapel, as well as playing the music for "Big Chapel".

Although girls are often called upon to play at the last minute, they somehow manage to handle the situation calmly.

To this group of pianists we owe our thanks for innumerable smooth chapel programs.

The Choral Club

Membership in the Choral Club is open to all those in the Upper School who enjoy singing. Mr. Robert Danes is the accompanist and Mr. Brendon Griswold directs the students. Aside from the annual performances at Parent's Weekend, Christmas Vespers, the Baccalaureate Service, and Graduation, the Choral Club performed on KLRN television, on February 10, and made a long-play recording.

The 1964-65 school term was an exciting and pleasant year for the Choral Club due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Griswold and the enthusiasm of the club members.

The Belles of St. Mary's

The Octet of 1964 has grown to twelve members who call themselves the Belles of St. Mary's. The members are chosen by audition from the Choral Club. They meet once a week to practice for various performances during the year. They have sung for chapel services at St. Mary's Hall and also went to Austin to sing on Channel 9, an educational television station.

The purpose of the Belles is to teach its members some of the techniques of singing with a small group in varying types of music as well as to give them experience in performing before an audience. The Belles are very appreciative of the direction of their sponsor, Mr. Brendon Griswold.

Riding Club

The St. Mary's Hall Riding Club is designed to encourage interest while providing further knowledge of this exciting and enjoyable sport. The girls selected as members of the club are those in forms eight through twelve who express a particular interest in riding.

Throughout the year, all of the members participate in trail rides and, every so often, in a small "for fun" horse show. In the spring, everyone works together to present the annual Saint Mary's Hall Horse Show.

On Bishop's Day, a cup is awarded to the girl who has shown the most active enthusiasm and participation in the club, and a Riding Club Banquet closes the year.

"The Walrus"

"The time has come', the Walrus said, 'to talk of many things' . . .", and "The Walrus", the school magazine in its first year, is devoted to this purpose. "The Walrus" welcomes literary contributions from anyone from the third grade through the Upper School. The editorial board of the Magazine is aided by the English Department in deciding what should be published. After each publication, a few outstanding contributers are asked to join the staff.

La Reata

The 1965 La Reata Staff is responsible for the publication which is now in your possession. Having undergone the trials and tribulations of misplaced page numbers, rainy days when no pictures could be taken, two typewriters which were never in perfect running order at the same time, overdue deadlines, and a lack of funds, they soon became a close-knit group with their own kind of "lingo". Passing by the cramped office on the northeast corner of Senior House, one might hear: Ethel: "Who's been messin' with my snapshots?" . . . Mary: "Oh—the Calendar, well, I am somewhat of a ham!" . . . Jane: "Y'all this is just ridiculous!" . . . Norie: "I just don't understand, but I'll go call Beverly's." . . . Stephanie: "Now if we sell ten more subscriptions, we'll save this much money—according to my calculations." . . . Janie: "Ethel, are you ever going to learn how to use the cropping guide???" . . . Mr. May: "Well, how's it going? Do you want me to call Gerloff?"

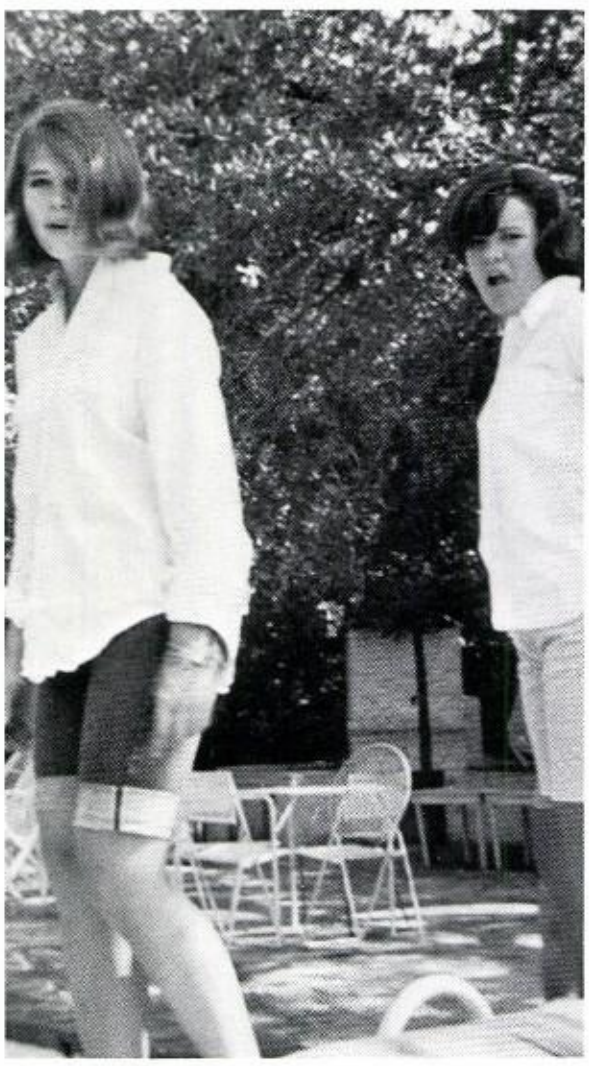
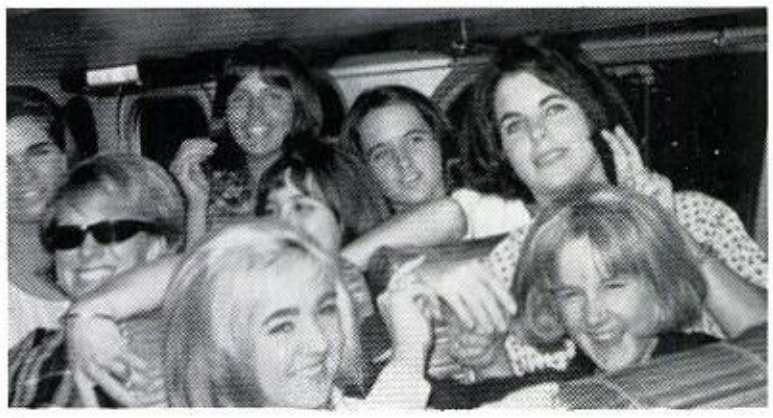
CALENDAR OF EVENTS

A YEAR AT SAINT MARY'S HALL flies by so swiftly, one can scarcely recall the events of a single week or month. In the course of the days we pass through many doors as we experience not only the day-to-day processes of tests, papers, and other academic achievements, but also the development of new friendships. In this section, we have endeavored to record only the highlights of a year filled with innumerable activities.

September

The first days of school can be a bit tedious, especially for the new girls, who are trying to become accustomed to new surroundings. We tried to make them feel at home at a "Get Acquainted" party the first night. Then, before we got down to the tasks at hand, we engaged in one last fling at Gallagher Ranch, where we spent the day swimming, playing cards and pool, horse back riding, or just being lazy.





The Seniors felt jinxed from the beginning. The week of the proposed Tie ceremonies, Mr. Pennell announced that the Japanese silk worms were doubtless making transistor radios instead of Blue Ties. A week later when we were assured that they were en route, we began to plot a scheme for the disposal of our plebian black ties. James Bond movies were the current rage, so we devised a plan, complete with 007!

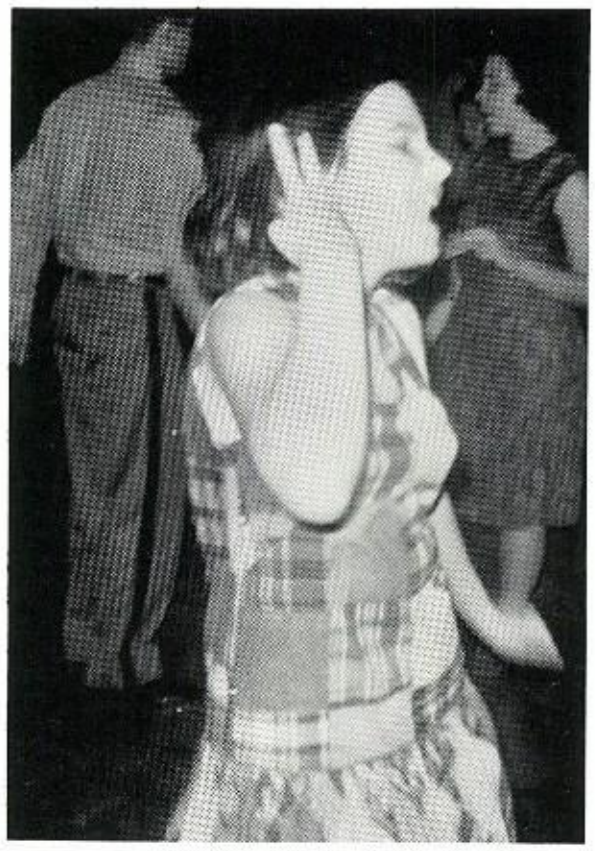
The next day, after literally years of waiting, we filed onto the terrace to receive our Blue ties and rings. There were shaking knees and a few tears, as we stood before the swimming pool and sang the Alma Mater . . . real Seniors at last.

After the ceremony, pictures were taken of the triumphant and jubilant seniors. It was difficult to force us back to the drudgery of schoolwork.

We cannot admit that life was "all work and no play", for soon it was time for the new girls to draw to determine whether she would be a Caper or an Elliott. This occasion marked the beginning of another year of strong but friendly rivalry.

The following week, our respective teams chose their cheerleaders. The decision was a difficult one, for these girls would be the "spirit-boosters" for the entire year. The excitement mounted until the announcement that Celeste, Dee Dee, Linda, and Sylvia would be the Caper Cheerleaders; that Gail, Liz, Marilyn, and Penny would cheer for the Elliotts.

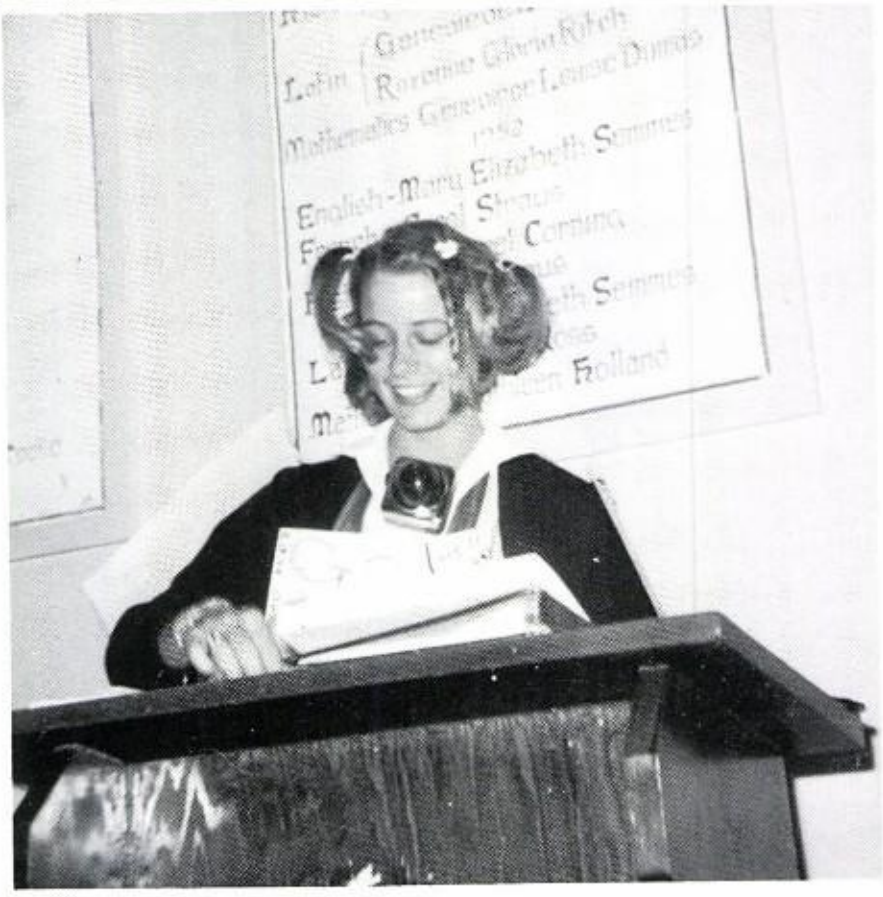
Suddenly . . . the nights were getting longer, not cooler, but we somehow sensed that real "Fall" would soon be upon us. We enjoyed the last days of Indian Summer and slipped into October.



October

First of all, the boarders had a dance with Peacock Military Academy. The dance was hosted by KONO disc jockey, Don Cowzer, and everybody had a great time.

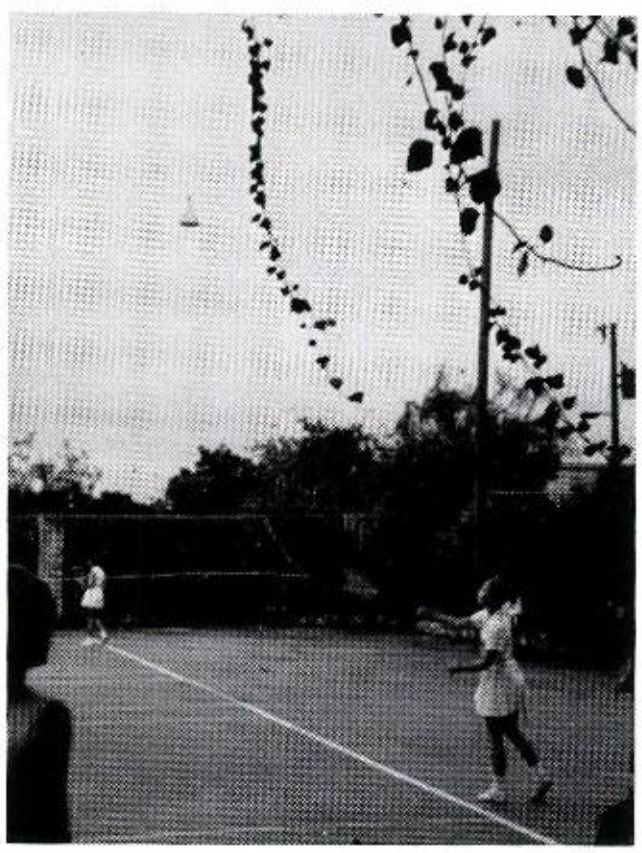
Then a new event brightened the campus. In order to raise money for the United Fund, the generous hearted Student Council offered itself for auction. The glib tongued auctioneers, Mr. Shute and Mr. Betterly, managed to squeeze over five hundred dollars out of the student body. During the two days for which they were auctioned, the Student Council was required to do all that their "masters" told them.



The final event of the month was the annual Halloween Party given by the Drama Club. This year the theme was "a visit to the Addams Family and their House of Horrors". Everyone agreed that it was the best party the club had ever planned and a gay time was had by all.

November

November came in "with a book and out with a bang"—or rather a shout of ecstasy. The fourth annual Book Fair was held the first week of the month, and the proceeds were used to buy new books for the library.



We started running around the block in order to get in shape for a Play Day with St. Stephen's. Both teams played well and everyone enjoyed the competition.

By this time, we were not only counting cans for the annual Thanksgiving food drive, but also the days until vacation. We left Nov. 26 for four glorious days of freedom.

December

No sooner had we recovered from Thanksgiving than it was time to begin the preparations for the Christmas festivities. Before beginning the diets which would assure the fitting of their Christmas formals, the Seniors engaged in one last food and fun-filled occasion—A Luau given by Ginny Sergeant. The next two weeks were spent stringing popcorn, stretching crepe paper, and flocking trees for the Christmas dance.

There were tense moments at midnight December 11, but by two-thirty on Saturday, the Seniors congratulated themselves on a top-notch job of decorating. "An Old-fashioned Christmas" was portrayed throughout, and when the clock "struck" eleven-thirty, we all agreed that the evening had passed far too quickly.

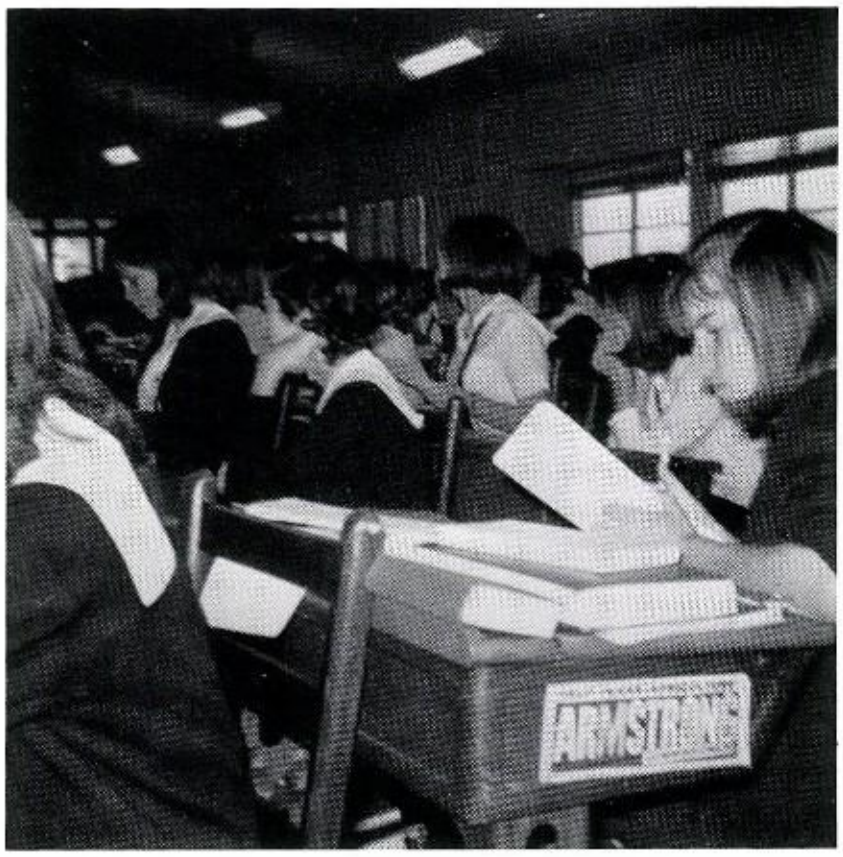
On Sunday, at five-thirty, the entire student body attended the annual Vesper Service, held at Christ Church. By the close of the week-end, we truly felt the Christmas Spirit.

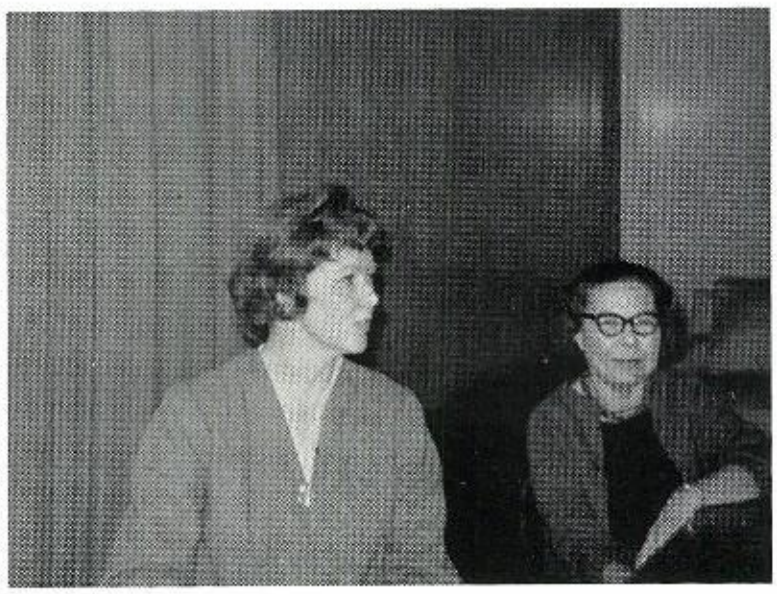
The last few days before vacation were focused on the Drama Club, Elliott School, and the Lower School. "The Mad Woman of Chaillot" was presented by the Drama Club and two Christmas performances "A Christmas Carol", and a nativity play were given by the Lower and Elliott Schools.

Then we packed our bags and winded our ways homeward for two and a half weeks of frolic.

January

The arrival of the month of January brought with it the depression of returning to school from Christmas Vacation. However, the bright prospect of mid-term exams in only two weeks helped to cheer everyone. The time before those happy few days of testing was filled with the usual school work, but favored by lectures, club meetings, and tension. We were honored to have with us Miss Luci Armstrong, a graduate of St. Mary's Hall, who is a prominent San Antonio artist. Her visit with the Art Club was one of the few bright spots during those trying times.





The strife was over—the battle done (but not necessarily won), so we threw up our hands, went home and slept for a few days.

So ended one-half of the school year. Here we leave you, for the time being, but never fear! The best is yet to come!

The staff of La Reata 1965 would like to extend its thanks to Mr. William May for his patience and cooperation. His moral support and "quick phone calls to Mr. Gerloff" have been absolutely indispensable in getting this annual published.

The Senior Class of 1965 expresses its gratitude to Mrs. Ruth Helms for her close work with, and honest interest in, our class. Her patience and understanding have been an inspiration in helping us reach our principal goals—giving a dance, putting out an annual, and, of course, graduation.

The 1965 staff of La Reata expresses its appreciation to Mr. Pennell, the office staff, and the faculty, for their aid in publishing the annual. When it came to meeting deadlines, getting information on students and teachers, and managing money, they were essential.

We would also like to thank Mr. Feldman and Mrs. Baxter at Beverly Studios for their assistance in getting the pictures for La Reata 1965. Their patience with the staff in taking pictures at odd hours of the day almost every day for many weeks are very much valued by us.

Failure

"There are always reasons for giving up. Arguments for self-pity are thick as blackberries. The world is crowded with thorns and cruelties, causes for tears. Courage is the divine unreason against which, as against a rock, the waves of disaster beat in vain. Say to yourself: I am unconquerable. I shall arrive. In the center of creation sits not an enemy, but a friend. I shall arrive—what time, what circuit first, I shall not ask. In some time, His good time, I shall arrive. Let come what will, I shall never say I'm beaten. I am not a negligible molecule, a mote in the sunbeam, a worm! I am a man, and so help me God! I shall play the man. Failure! There is no such word in all the bright lexicon of speech, unless you yourself have written it there! There is no such thing as failure except to those who accept and believe in failure."

A sound program of general education is typically American. Our continuous quest for knowledge is a tribute to our national and individual initiative. The spread of that knowledge across our entire population is proof beyond question that democracy is — and will continue to be — a dynamic, living force in the United States. Butter, by the same token, is a distinctive part of our national heritage. It is the product, above all others, that symbolizes the rewards of the American way of life. Those of us at Falfurrias never lose sight of this fact and of the responsibility it implies.

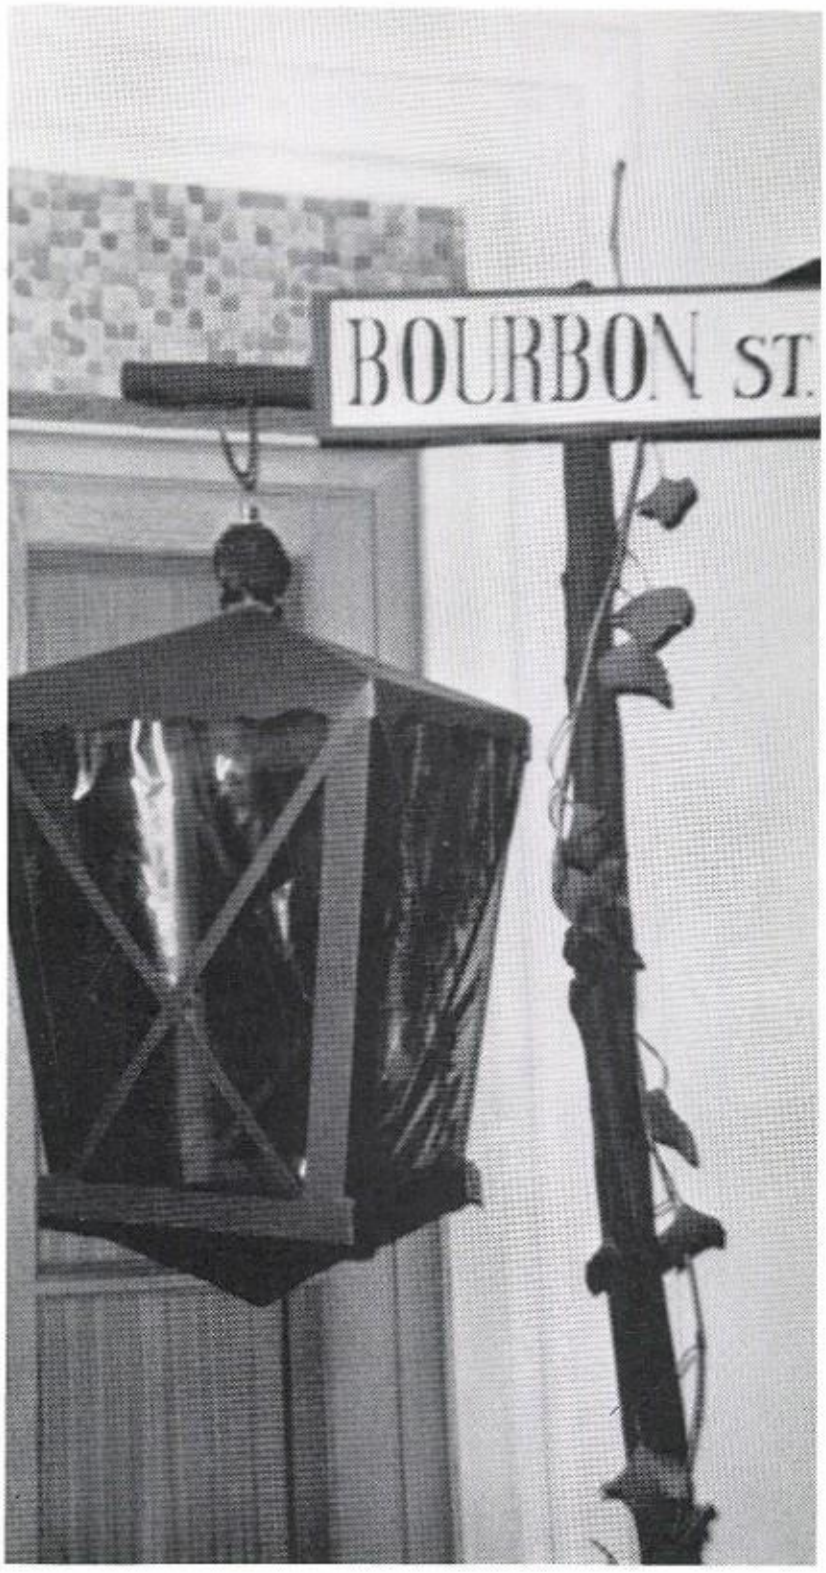
SUMMER SUPPLEMENT

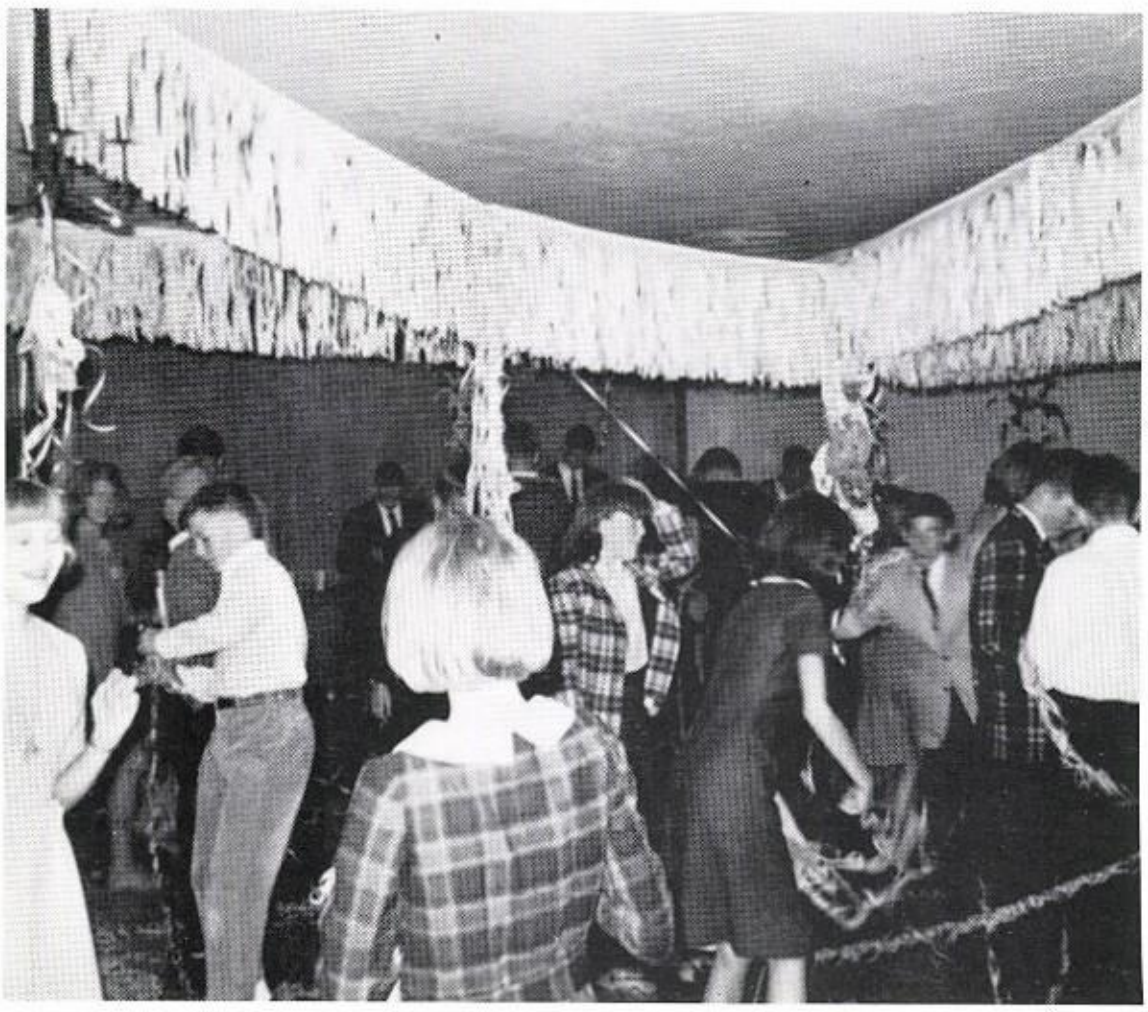
February and March . . .

February and March, the haul between Mid-term and Spring Vacation, always seem like two of the longest, slowest months of the school year; but they were not without activity. On Wednesday, the tenth of February, the Choral Club went to Austin to perform on KLRN television. Since the show was not over until ten o'clock, they were quite late returning; this is the only event of the entire year which can be recalled as an interruption to the Thursday history test schedule.

Meanwhile, our hockey team was hard at work. The Preliminary and All-Star came too soon after exams to allow much practice; but the team drilled faithfully for a game against Hockaday, played at Saint Stephens on February thirteenth. They were off again at six-thirty the next Saturday to play Saint Stephens and Cassidy at Hockaday. Both trips were judged very enjoyable and worthwhile.

Friday the nineteenth was the day of an informal dance for which the eighth grade decorated the New Dorm with a "Bourbon Street" theme. Judging from the reports in circulation, the dance was a big success for both chaperones and students. Also contributing to the furor of the week-end were Rodeo performances and preparation for the Spanish club trip to Laredo.

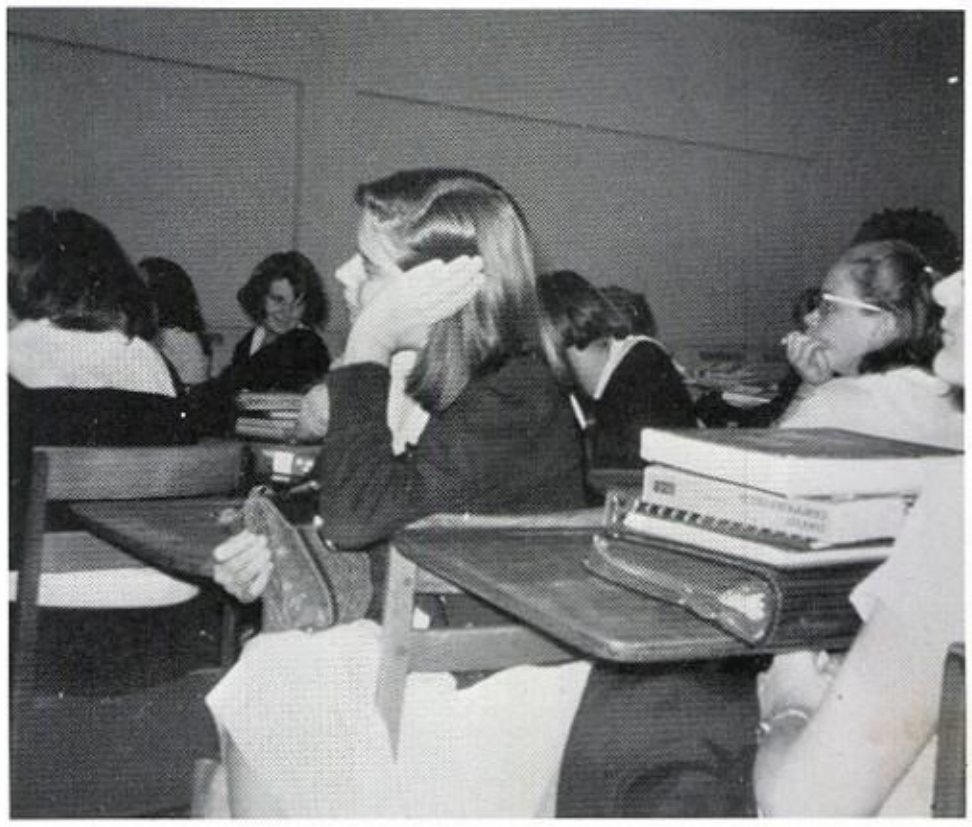




. . . the "in-between" Months

March didn't roar very loudly and even the weather kept to the mild vein it had followed all winter. On the sixth we took SAT's, which quite a few of us had experienced before. On the thirteenth, annoyed students had to remain in town another week-end to take National Merit tests. But there was some compensation for those who attended the thrilling production of "Faust," held at the Municipal Auditorium, on Sunday afternoon.

High enthusiasm and anticipation were soon in the air as the students minds turned to thoughts of the fast approaching Spring Vacation. Finally, the big day, March eighteenth, arrived and everyone left for a glorious week and a half at home!

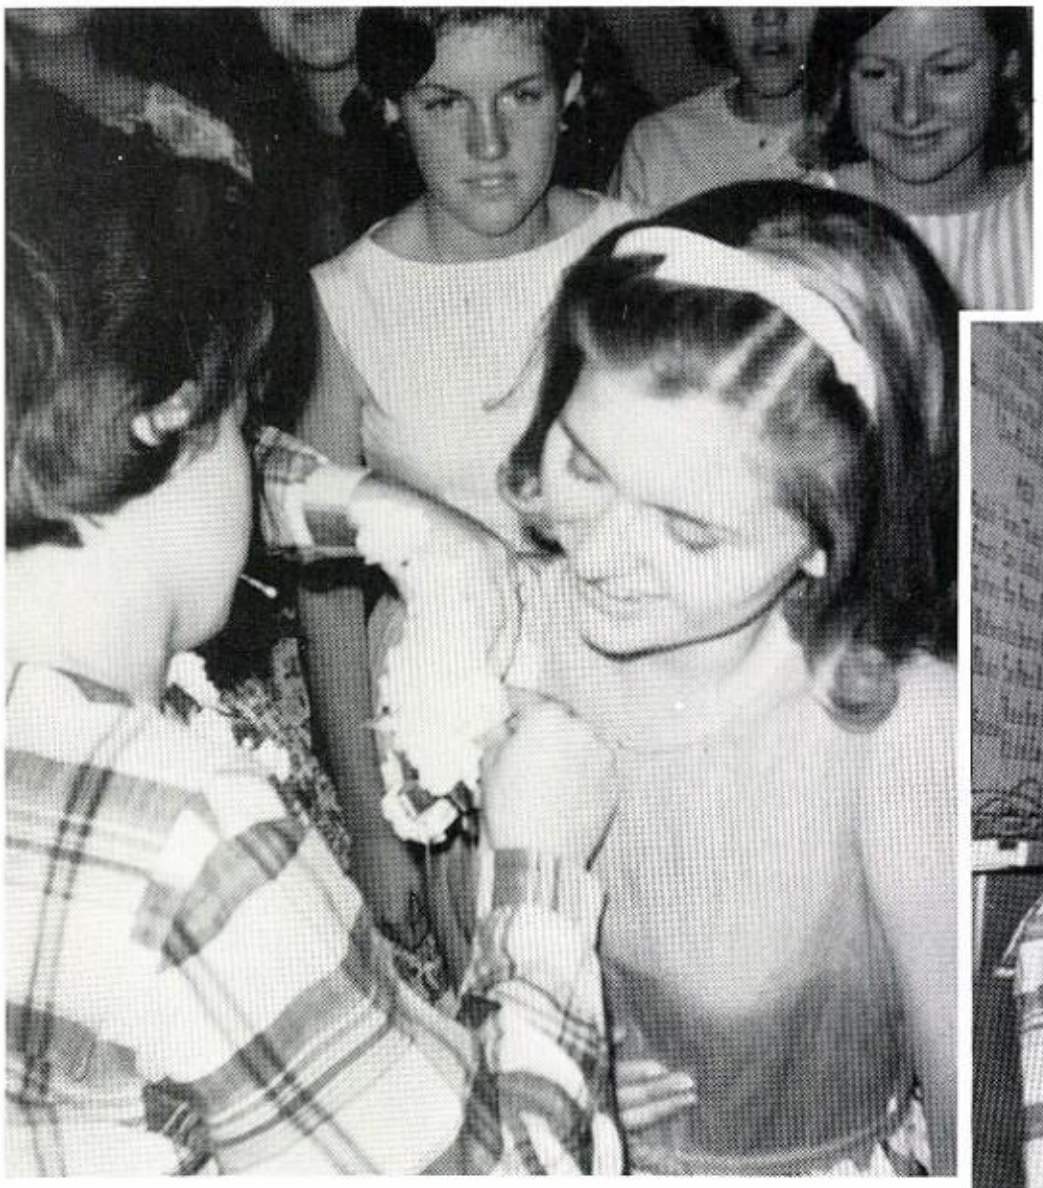


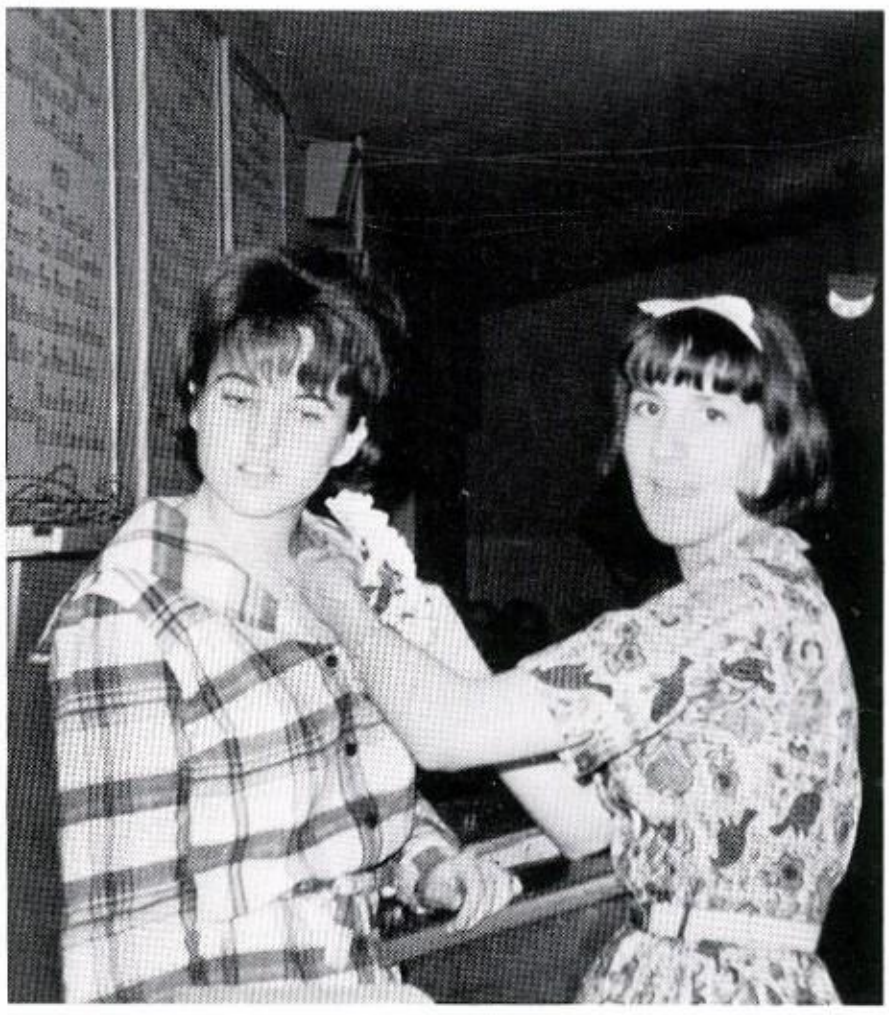
April Brought Spring Fever + Increased Activities . . .

After ten great days of Spring Vacation, we returned, tired and depressed, to school. The schoolwork that lay before us looked hopelessly depressing. However, two weeks later our lives were again brightened by the arrival of our fathers for the annual Fathers Day festivities, April ninth.

Easter Vacation, from the fifteenth to the eighteenth, was followed by a swift Fiesta week and the Cum Laude induction ceremony.

Still more excitement was in store for the student body . . . between the twentieth and the end of the month, we elected most of next year's officers—student council, head of residence, sports council. Despite all the excitement of these elections, this was a somewhat sad time, for the Seniors began to realize that their jobs were almost completed and the year was fast coming to an end . . .



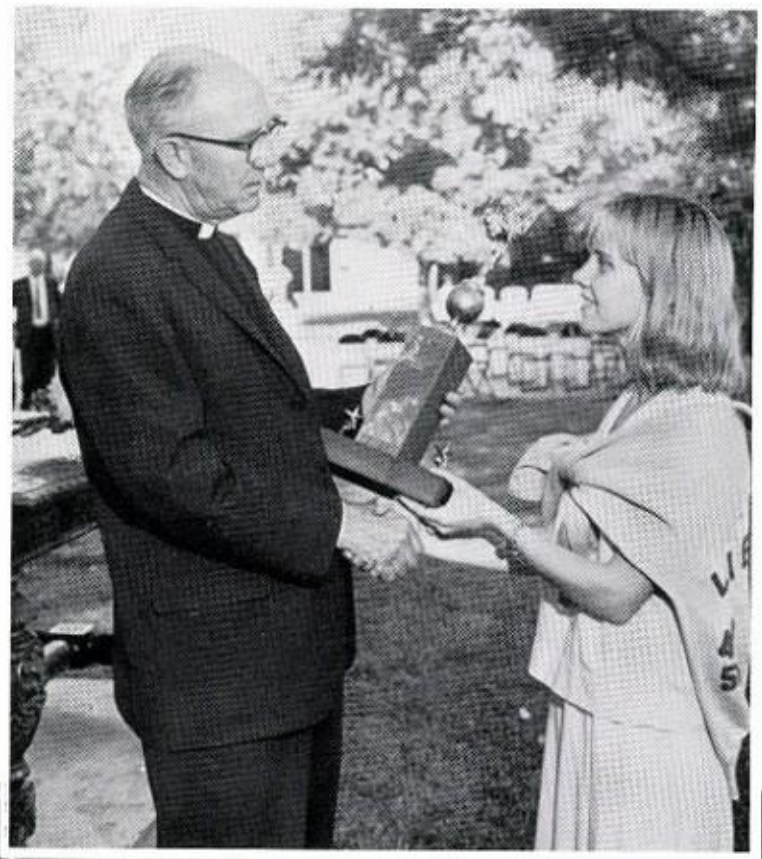


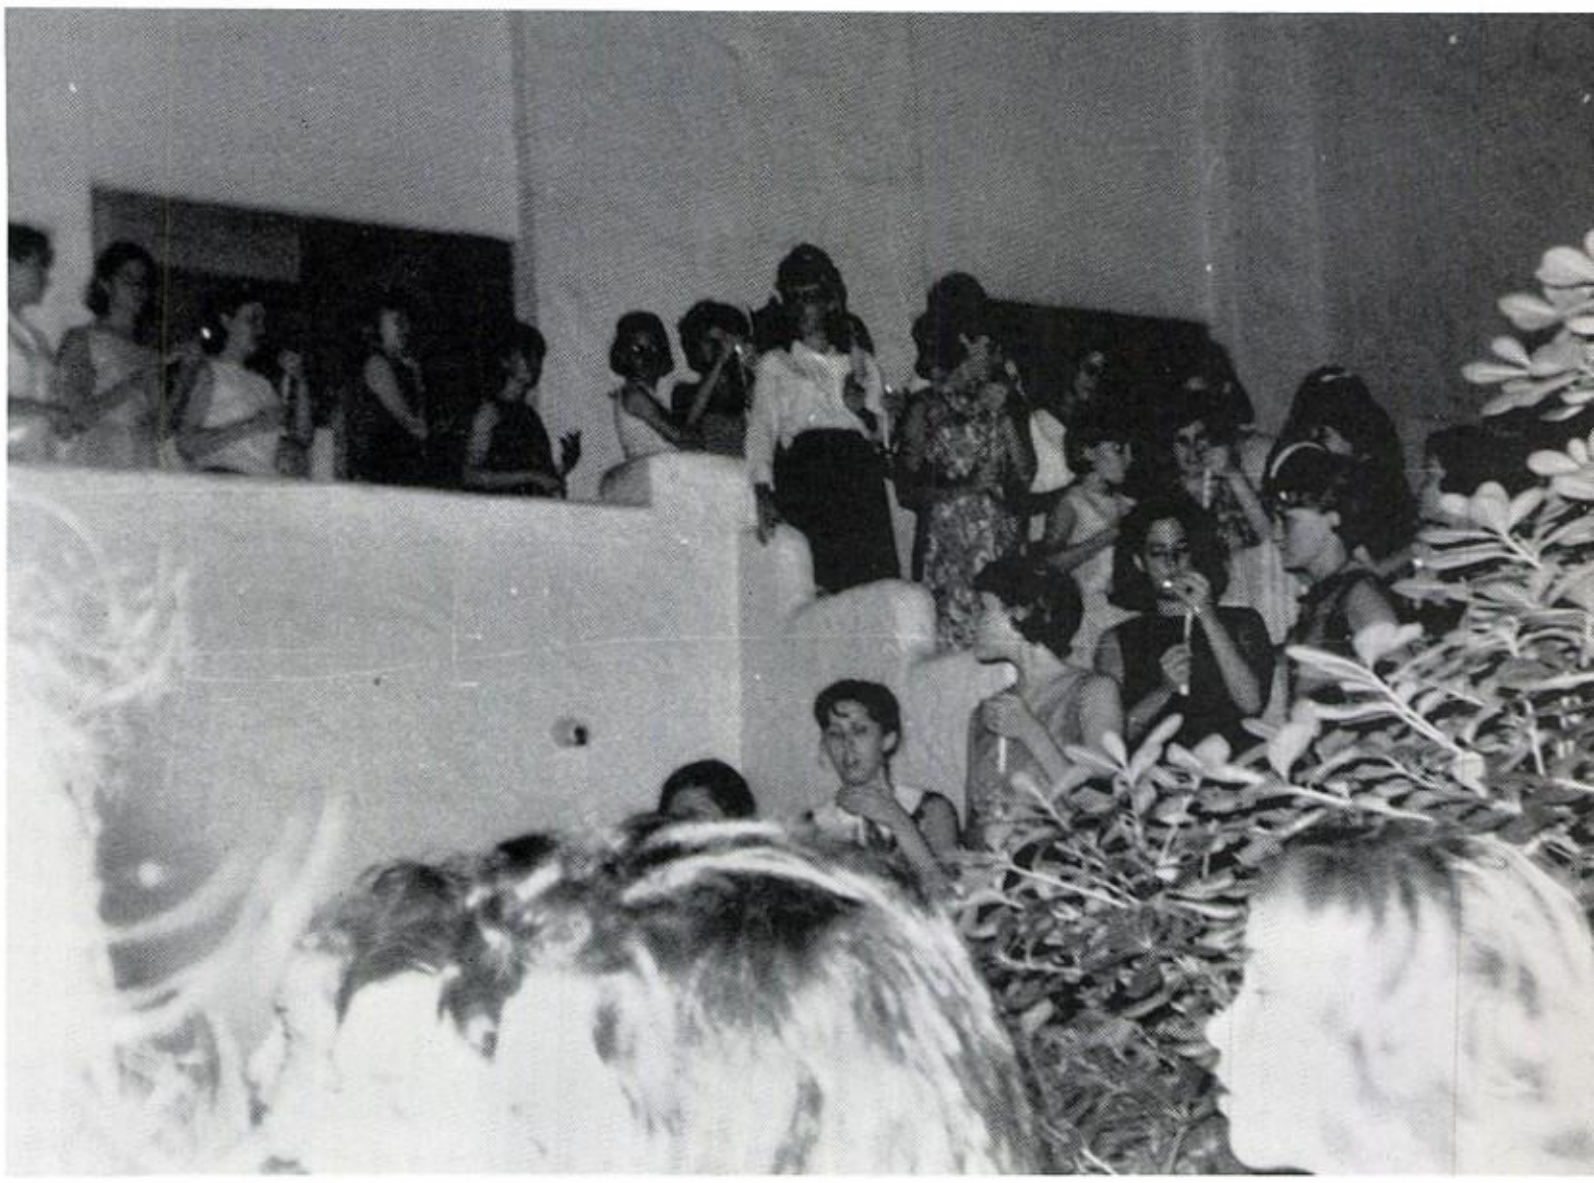
May Moved Even Faster Than April Had . . .

Minds were not on school work as May swept on, and, needless to say, most good intentions of studying early for final exams were fruitless . . .

There were too many, more exciting things to occupy our minds. While the Seniors practiced for Commencement, the Juniors frantically began to speed up their work on the Spring Dance. Meanwhile, the cast and crew did last minute polishing up before their two plays, "Down in the Valley" and "Blithe Spirit," in which several students from T.M.I. participated. Everyone agreed that the plays, held May sixth and seventh, were among the best ever presented at SMH. And, despite a number of complications, on Saturday, the eighth, the Juniors transformed the campus into the Land of Oz for one glorious night. The band, the "Thunderballs," helped bring the dance to a novel conclusion with a drum roll and fanfare as the giant weather balloon was released.

The week after the dance was spent in cleaning out lockers, preparing for Bishop's Day, and trying to forget impending exams. At Bishop's Day on the fourteenth, we formally concluded the athletic year. Early in the afternoon, the Pledges' and All-Star volleyball games were preceded with farewell songs by the two teams. Water ballet, form swimming, drill team, and Swingout were also a significant part of the program. The point and spirit cup was awarded to the Caper team, and although that Saturday was wet, the Horse Show at Russell's Stables came off on schedule, thus informally ending the sports year.





While the first half of the month had been exciting, the best and the worst, Commencement and exams, was yet to come . . .

On May twenty fourth, in the middle of exams, the Seniors were honored with the Baccalaureate Service. As always, the service was beautiful and gave us the "spiritual backbone" necessary to weather the remaining exams.

The one nasty hump to get over, final exams, ended school work for the year. We could then turn our full attention toward the business of packing and practicing for Commencement. But most important, the last few "schoolless" days were filled with the numerous traditional events . . .

On Tuesday night, just before the last dreadful exam, the Candlelight Ceremony was held. There was a song for each of the graduates and next year's Seniors were given candles, inscribed with both girls names, by their "big sisters". The ceremony ended on a melancholy note as Auld Lang Syne was sung.

A sweltering Graduation practice Thursday afternoon temporarily quelled everyone's anticipation of Friday night. But later, spirits revived at the hilarious Senior play, "St. Madras Hall." It concerned the efforts of the students and faculty (Mr. Pennellize, Mr. Murderbirth, Mr. Worsley included) to get air conditioning for the school. At the conclusion of the play, the La Reata was presented by its editor, Janie Oakes, and dedicated to Colonel Kilborn; then the annuals were distributed. The great, rewarding moment for the La Reata staff had finally arrived!

On Graduation day the Juniors awakened the Senior boarders with breakfast in bed. Later in the morning, Honors Assembly concluded the academic year. Certificates and awards were distributed and the Cum Laude inducted new members.

Meanwhile, everyone was holding her breathe, hoping that it wouldn't rain. Luckily, it didn't and Commencement was staged outside. No extensive commentary need be made on Commencement, for its beauty will never be forgotten by any who have ever been close to the graduates. The white dresses, the dozen red roses, the tower bell, the tears and joy, the regret and relief, fuse to make this one of the great moments in our lives.

STATE OF TEXAS

COUNTY OF BEXAR

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, the Class of 1965, herein acting in our official capacities, being of sound mind and disposing memory, realizing the uncertainties of graduation, and cognizant of our properties and the objects of our bequest, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, revoking all other wills and testamentary dispositions heretofore made by us and direct that:

I, Clare Judd, being of sound mind and body, bequeath my unlimited and, I might add, unmatched sense of humor to Ben Shute, in hopes that it will enable him to improve his own. Also, to Susan Chittim and Gretchen Lehrer I leave my esteemed position as President of the B.O.P.s, since their athletic ability is almost as lacking as my own.

Jane Padgitt knows that drivers and pedestrians alike will welcome her absence behind the wheel of a blue Monza. She also leaves her Wednesday night vigils to Gertrude Schalaben in hopes that she will be more successful on Thursday.

Norie Kerr leaves taking everything with her she can get her hands on, including her closet floor.

Gaye Brooks leaves her weekend trips to Austin to anyone who is prepared to miss school the next Monday.

Ethel Affleck leaves her record of behavior for twelve years to anyone who is foolish enough to think two such records will qualify for graduation.

Lois Chiles, hereby relinquishes her number one position in Mrs. Redfield's French class to Jo Ann Sively with the hope that she will enjoy it as much as I have, and my ability to sit through Friday afternoon dismissals with patience to Mary Ann Dittmar.

Irene Slavens leaves to Claire Gillespie and Kitty Kuper the old look out post on Penny Lane.

Anita Scott leaves the St. Anthony Hotel to any junior boarder who needs a home away from home, the chemistry lab to Janie Hickie, whom she knows will appreciate it, and Schreiner Institute to anyone who wants it.

I, Kathy Killam, do hereby leave my "English Reformation" to next year's advanced section so that they, too, can concentrate on an orderly English class; and to Sealy Cross my furry seal Alaskan Infirmary boots sometime in the future years.

I, Mary Strozier, do hereby bequeath my ability to "draw fine lines" to Mr. Shute's "favorite" pupil of next year.

Tisha Edwards wills to any future S.M.H. "Okie" the job of keeping the true "Okie" spirit up. She also wills to any boarder going with a T.M.I. boarder the ability to get any girl off the phone by 9:29½ p.m.

I, Janie Oakes, bequeath to Jo Ann Sively a ring of keys to that glorious inner sanctum, The La Reata Room; and to some fortunate Senior '66 boarder, my half of the Senior Annex, which, I might add, includes the phone, in hopes that she too will grow to appreciate 2:00 a.m. calls.

I, Elizabeth Bagby, do hereby will U.S. Highway 81 North to everyone from Austin, and to Mrs. Eckstrum and Mrs. Redburn, I leave "my moments of madness".

Cris Sumners leaves a vacancy in the Back Row Benjamin Rumplemeyer Shute Junior Adoration Organization to any Junior who thinks she can handle him.

I, Courtenay Beinhorn, bequeaths one pair of glasses to any near-sighted person unfortunate enough to sit on the side of study hall opposite the hymn number plaque and stupid enough to leave her own glasses at home every morning.

I, Cindy Leon, will my ability to get along with the faculty to Judy Harris, my eternal love for Mexico to Patsy, and to Kathy U., my ability to play tennis to Sally, Eleanor, Deirdre and Mr. Hastings, and the optimism for a Democratic victory at S.M.H. to Mr. Shute and Mr. Betterly.

I, Stephanie Troell, do hereby bequeath my backrow, right-side Study Hall chair to anyone who has a History test first period.

I, Lucy Gruy do hereby bequeath to Deirdre Denman, the St. Mary's Hall science department, with the sincere hope that somehow she will be able to get through lab without me next year.

Penny Chittim leaves her place as Chairman of the Chapel Committee to whomever is fool enough to accept it. She also leaves, hoping that Susan, Mary Jane and Tao will keep up that great Chittim tradition at S.M.H.

Louise Mandel leaves her skirts to Gertrude S. in hopes that she will keep up that LONG tradition. Louise also bequeaths her frequent trips to Mexico to those Laredo girls who dare to live so recklessly.

Frances Chamberline leaves all her diseases to Georgia in hopes that maybe she will have some luck in losing weight.

Nena Chaney leaves her hymnal to Georgia Chamberlain in hopes that she will continue her wonderful singing; the contents of her purse to Ruthie Dittmar, and her six years of boarding experience to any seventh grader who wants to try.

Sylvia Longoria leaves her Blue tie, Yellow sweatshirt, Purple beanie, and White P.E. uniform to Jo Ann Sivley, Mary Koerper, and Patsy Mautz in hopes that they, too will have a colorful senior year.

Jeanne Snydėlaar, being of sound mind but not state, leaves her ardent Mexican loyalty to Patsy Mautz and her many exciting experiences to Susan Snead.

Marje Harris leaves her ability to ride to any member of the Riding Club who thinks she can do as well.

Bettie Ward leaves her excellent driving ability to Leslie Negley who worked so hard on Driver's Ed., and to Ruthie Bowman she leaves her ability to ride a gaited horse since she needs it.

Jane Pabst leaves all her ice cubes to Mary Wieser and Gretchen Lehrer in hopes that they will freeze all the Schreiner boys; and her craving for surfing music to Kendall Wolfe in hopes that I might acquire some of her Mexico City "talents."

Joann Cooke leaves her ability to skip out of night study hall to any next year's Senior who is dumb enough to get into it.

Jeannie DeBona leaves Gretchen, Evita and Sealy her ability to get through the next 2 years and still be sane; and to Cornelia Frazier the pleasure of using her hymnal by herself every morning.

Jean Wieser leaves Mary her ability to put up with the Schreiner boys and hopes that she won't call them as much; to Kendall Wolfe the privilege of trying to keep track of her younger sister.

Carolyn Wreden leaves her handbook to the junior class and her desk in study hall to anyone who likes to waste all her time roaming the halls.

Connie Keeling leaves her turncoat to some future person from an all UT family who decides she doesn't want to go to UT.

Lyn Wilkinson leaves her ability to go on a diet to anyone who wants to start at 12:00 midnight-tomorrow; and leaves Leslie Negley in hopes that she will keep fit walking to and from school.

Christie Beanland leaves her seat of honor and embarrassment in the bleachers at Peacock parades to the class of '68; her appendix scar to Terence Hanna and Valerie Hickie; and she leaves that Mr. Shute's threat, "You can be replaced," may finally come true.

Ginny Sergeant leaves her athletic ability to Janie Hickie whom she hopes will help, and her changeable hair to Kathy Suderman and Gaye Merriweather whom she knows will use it to the best of their abilities.

Bobi Lytle leaves SMH with the hope that the Doctor will be good to Mary Ann Dittmar, Janie Hickie, Kendall Wolfe, and Terry Hanna and give them all the medicine they desire.

Kaki and Lucy leave their apartment to anyone who can afford the rent.

Kathleen Jones leaves her W and L spirit (and phone bill) to Sealy Cross in hopes that she will carry it in; and her feminine mystique along with its many complications to Susan Snead in hopes that she will cope with it more successfully.

Nancy Castleberry leaves to Georgia Chamberlain all on those wonderful Wednesday nights diligently spent in the pursuit of historical enlightenment . . . of Princeton, of Lane, of Colorado, of Mexico . . .

Lucy Dittmar leaves her car to Mary Ann so she can make life easier for Janie Hickie, Kendall Wolfe, and Suzy Wright.

Anne Goldfinch leaves Brownsville to Tina Heinz and Mary Yturria in hopes that they will have more fun there than she did.

Celeste Altgelt leaves her T.M.I. megaphone to Kitty Kuper and her date service to Claire Gillespie, Tina Altgelt, and Gloria Uruttia.
